

The XPM's Determine Eligibility for Certification Based on Origin and Destination table states:

If the commodities are from the U.S. or affiliated islands (Islands associated with the United States but not fully integrated as a state (i.e., American Samoa, Guam, the Northern Mariana Islands, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands)), And are being exported To a foreign country, Then:

1. CONSIDER eligible for PPQ Form 577 or PPQ Form 578
2. Go to Eligibility Based on Protected Status on page 3-3-5

If the commodities are from the U.S. or affiliated islands (Islands associated with the United States but not fully integrated as a state (i.e., American Samoa, Guam, the Northern Mariana Islands, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands)), And are being exported Interstate via Canada, Then:

1. CONSIDER eligible for PPQ Form 577 or PPQ Form 578
2. Go to Eligibility Based on Protected Status on page 3-3-5

If the commodities are from the U.S. or affiliated islands (Islands associated with the United States but not fully integrated as a state (i.e., American Samoa, Guam, the Northern Mariana Islands, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands)), And are being exported To the U.S. or affiliated islands, Then:

1. CONSIDER ineligible for a certificate
2. REFER applicant to the State or affiliated island's plant regulatory agency for certification using a State export certificate
3. EXIT this manual

If the commodities are from a foreign country (Only foreign origin commodities that have entered U.S. commerce are eligible for reexport certification. Commodities transiting the U.S. are ineligible. If the commodity is of foreign origin but did not require a phytosanitary certificate to make entry into the U.S., if eligible for phytosanitary certification, and all foreign import requirements have been met, a PPQ Form 577 should be issued with country of origin listed in block 13, Place of Origin.), And are being exported To a foreign country, Then:

1. CONSIDER eligible for PPQ Form 577, PPQ Form 578, or PPQ Form 579
2. Go to Eligibility Based on Protected Status on page 3-3-5

If the commodities are from a foreign country (Only foreign origin commodities that have entered U.S. commerce are eligible for reexport certification. Commodities transiting the U.S. are ineligible. If the commodity is of foreign origin but did not require a phytosanitary certificate to make entry into the U.S., if eligible for phytosanitary certification, and all foreign import requirements have been met, a PPQ Form 577 should be issued with country of origin listed in block 13, Place of Origin.), And are being exported Interstate via Canada, Then:

1. CONSIDER eligible for PPQ Form 577, PPQ Form 578, or PPQ Form 579
2. Go to Eligibility Based on Protected Status on page 3-3-5

If the commodities are from a foreign country (Only foreign origin commodities that have entered U.S. commerce are eligible for reexport certification. Commodities transiting the U.S. are ineligible. If the commodity is of foreign origin but did not require a phytosanitary certificate to make entry into the U.S., if eligible for phytosanitary certification, and all foreign import requirements have been met, a PPQ Form 577 should be issued with country of origin listed in block 13, Place of Origin.), And are being exported To the U.S. or affiliated islands, Then:

1. CONSIDER ineligible for a certificate
2. REFER applicant to the State, country, or affiliated island's plant regulatory agency for certification using a State export certificate
3. EXIT this manual