This certificate is for Veterinary purposes only. It is valid for 30 days after the date of signature (in the case of transport by ship or rail, the time is prolonged by the time of the voyage).

This is to certify that rinderpest, foot-and-mouth disease, classical swine fever, swine vesicular disease, African swine fever, and contagious bovine pleuropneumonia do not exist in the United States of America.

ADDITIONAL DECLARATION

This office has on file a notarized affidavit from Fido's Yummies, Inc. verifying the accuracy of the statements below:

- 1) The animal origin raw material included in the product comes from the USA. except for the mechanically deboned lamb meat which was legally imported from New Zealand.
- 2) The product does not contain ruminant proteins or any other ingredient of ruminant origin, except milk, milk proteins, gelatin and collagen (prepared exclusively from hides or skins), deproteinized tallow (with a maximum level of insoluble impurities of 0.15% in weight), or ruminant proteins legally imported from BSE-free countries as noted in #1 above.
- 3) Any meals used in the manufacture of the pet food were obtained from rendering plants approved by SAGARPA. This statement does not apply to fish meal.
- 4) U.S. or Canadian ruminant origin materials used in the manufacture of the pet food meet the following requirements:
 - a) Animals from which the product was obtained were slaughtered under the competent authority of the United States or Canada in approved facilities which only slaughter animals less than 30 months of age or in approved facilities with segregation procedures in place to ensure that only products of animals less than 30 months of age are used in the exported product.
 - b) The product was obtained from animals less than 30 months of age as determined by records that prove the age of the animals or by post mortem inspection (2 permanent incisors - canine teeth - or less).
 - c) The animals from which the product was obtained were not stunned using gas injection into the cranial cavity, or slaughtered by laceration after stunning of central nervous system by means of an elongated rod-shaped instrument introduced into the cranial cavity.

- d) The products do not include meat trimmings, mechanically deboned meat, meat produced through advanced meat recovery, or ground meat.
- 5) The establishment where the product was manufactured maintains records of each lot of raw materials and sales of final product.
