PREPARATION OF FSIS 8400-1
NOTICE OF TERMINATION OF DETENTION (Continued)

The program employee enters the following information: (continued)

CASE NUMBER and ENTRY NUMBER:

After completing the forms for the detention action (detention and/or termination), the program employee will notify the appropriate FSIS Field Supervisory Office of the detention action for data entry. The Field Supervisory Office (FSO), will record pertinent information, assign a case number if appropriate, and provide additional coding to a three letter Entry Code (i.e., CID, OFO, or OIA), which indicates the program area initiating this action. The Entry Number is used by the FSO to track and record the detention action in the program's detention data base. Program employees are to record the information supplied by the FSO into the Entry Number and Case Number blocks of the FSIS Form 8080-1 and 8400-1, when appropriate.

Note: For detentions with Approved Extended Voluntary Disposition Plans which exceeds the 20-day limitation due to large amounts of product or other extenuating circumstances, write "See Attachment" and attach the FSIS Field Supervisory Office approval letter for the Extended Voluntary Disposition Plan and the custodian/owner's letter of requesting an Extended Voluntary Disposition Plan.
